Exceptional holiday theatre experience!

October 2018, Stanwood, WA – A Christmas Carol...More or Less, written by Stefano LoVerso and Mary Irey, is a hilarious holiday comedy. Directed by Victoria Ritchey, the production scripts a creative tale about a small town theatre presenting, A Christmas Carol, only most of the cast and crew are snowed out! The show must go on! See what hilarious antics ensue as Charlie and Sarah are faced with the impossible task of doing the play themselves. Along the way, they are surprised to discover their own story in this classic Dickens' tale. A humorous twist on a holiday classic.

Every December The Lights of Christmas delivers a magical experience filled with wonder and joy. This is no exception in their professional theatre production. Over the past five years almost ten thousand people have attended theatre at The Lights of Christmas. Guests can expect a production full of joy, redemption and gourmet food.

"The actors and the play were wonderful, and the food was excellent!" -2017 Attendee
